This Kobe stuff is freaky - especially given our helicopter / fog experience on Friday; hope your trip across the pond was uneventful!

I just feel like his judgement about what to communicate about - and what not to communicate about - is not very good

[REDACTED] sent around a note that said for the first tranche ($1M) they would take XRP or cash. They preferred cash since they were just going to liquidate the XRP and turn it into cash. I said it was something that [REDACTED] needed to weigh in on. [REDACTED] responded that we should do cash. And that was where it ended from my perspective. I could have flagged it for you...thought it was more [REDACTED] domain.

At the time I thought is was to limit the amount of XRP hitting the market...
